

We live in a democracy which is the greatest country on earth. Competition is healthy and good for our economy, it's people and the democracy of our great nation. This is a pay for service which brings value to me and many others on a daily basis while driving-let XM and others like them continue to offer such great services at a competitive price.